FEBS workshop: Education in biochemistry and molecular biology

Organised by the FEBS Education Committee

Coordinator: Karmela Barišić

Facilitators: Keith Elliott, Gül Güner-Akdogan, Peter Ott, Jason Perret, Mathias Sprinzl and Chris Willmott

Saturday, September 18, 2010

10:00 – 11:00	Registration
11:00 – 11:15	Opening and introduction
	ETHICS EDUCATION
11:15 – 11:45	Different approaches to ethics education (Chris Willmott)
11:45 – 13:00	Interactive session on ethics education
13:00 – 14:30	Lunch
	POST-GRADUATE EDUCATION
14:30 – 14:40	Introduction (Gül Güner-Akdogan)
14:40 – 15:10	Quality in post-graduation education (Gül Güner-Akdogan)
15:10 – 15:55	What abilities are needed by the student and what skills are needed by the supervisor (Jason Perret)
15:55 – 16:15	Coffee break and dividing into groups
16:15 – 17:15	Small group discussion: 1. Student abilities and supervisor's skills 2. Role of the supervisory committee 3. PhD curriculum 4. Experimental research-based thesis
17:15 – 18:00	Small group presentations
18:00 – 18:30	General discussion on post-graduate education
18:30 – 18:45	Concluding remarks

Sunday, September 19, 2010

	PROBLEM-BASED LEARNING
09:00 – 10:15	Problem-based learning in medical courses – the experience in Manchester and in Dokuz Eylül (Keith Elliott and Gül Güner-Akdogan)
10:15 – 10:30	Coffee break
10:30 – 12:30	Workshop: work in groups with examples of problem-cases
12:30 – 13:00	General discussion
13:00 – 13:30	Concluding the workshop